What is The Purple Tide?

For more than 30 years, The Purple Tide has provided Chantilly High School and its community with newsworthy articles, features and editorials. More than 3,000 people depend on the newspaper and online edition, www.thepurpletide.com, to keep them up-to-date with all of Chantilly's news and events. The Purple Tide, run by students for the school community, has won dozens of awards on the local, state and national levels for its continued excellence.

What can you do?

The Purple Tide is supported solely through donations, fundraisers, advertising and subscriptions. The newspaper staff is seeking your assistance in two possible ways:

1. Subscribe

Want to know what's going on in your child's school? It's time to subscribe. For just $20 for the year, The Purple Tide will be mailed to your home immediately after each issue is distributed within the school, roughly once per month. Each edition is filled with information about school events, clubs, sports and student opinions on a variety of topics.

A subscription also makes a great gift for Chantilly graduates who have moved away but still would like to know what's going on in their old school.

2. Be a Purple Tide Patron

The Purple Tide is also soliciting one-time contributions to ensure continued success in keeping with our long traditions of journalistic excellence and leadership within the school. Any amount is welcome, but with a one-time donation of $30 or more, you will be listed in every 2011-2012 issue as a Purple Tide Patron and receive each issue at your home.
